

“Revolutionary Bumper Sticker”

Are you a Patriot, or a Loyalist?

Your assignment is to create a bumper sticker that would convince colonists to either support the movement for independence from England, or to remain loyal to England.

You must take a side and use text as well as illustrations to create a bumper sticker that express your opinion. Your bumper sticker must have an original slogan that convinces others to support your cause. Your bumper sticker must also have a picture or illustration that depicts your point of view.

On the back, write three or four sentences that explain your bumper sticker. Explain what your slogan means and what each of your illustrations symbolizes.

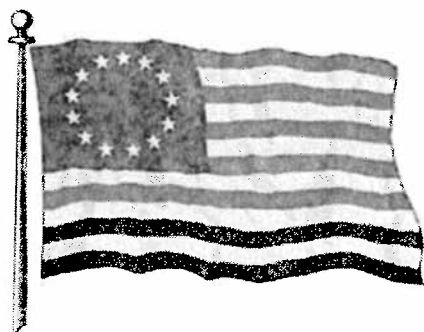

Grading:

Appropriate illustrations = 5 points

Appropriate slogan/text = 5 points

Three to four sentence explanation = 10 points

Neatness, grammar, spelling = 5 points

Total = 25 points
